

THE ROMANIANS FROM TEIUȘ IN FIGHT FOR LIBERTY AND NATIONAL UNITY. DOCUMENTARY CONTRIBUTIONS (1848—1918)

SUMMARY

This paper represents a short local history investigation. It has in attention Teiuș, one of the important places in Alba department, with a rich historical past, and is referring especially to the active presence of its inhabitants in the general fight of the Romanian people for liberty and national unity in the modern epoque.

Thus, after making a short remark concerning some former historical moments, the author insists upon the Romanians from Teiuș contribution during such great events as: the bourgeois-democratic revolution in 1848—1849 in Transylvania, the state independence war in 1877—1878, the so called „Memorandum“ movement in 1892—1894 and finally the Great Union of Transylvania to Romania, confirmed by the Great National Assembly decisions at Alba Iulia in 1918 December the 1st, which was in fact the achievement of the unitary national state of Romania.

At the end of the paper there are reproduced a number of 5 selfevident documents, maintaining the exact orthography of the time, concerning the above mentioned events, during the period 1848—1918.

(in English by Radu Ciobanu)