

ROMANIAN PRESENCE IN NORTH AMERICA IN THE SECOND HALF OF THE XIXth CENTURY AND THE BEGINNING OF THE XXth
(1860—1914)

SUMMARY

On the ground of documents from the archives in Romania and the U.S.A., as well as by means of the press and other sources, the present article supplies informations on some Romanian participations to the American civil war (Nicolae Dunca, Gheorghe Pomuț, Eugen Alcaz, Emanoil Boteanu and Eugen Ghika), or to the hispano-american war. In the paper are also mentioned other romanian personalities who contributed to the cultural and scientific life of the north-american continent, participations to various congresses and conferences which took place in the U.S.A., romanian works known in the U.S.A. or romanian travellers on north-american ground who distinguished themselves in the more thorough description of the world in general.
