

SOME OBSERVATIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE RESTORATION OF THE POTTERY FROM TELEAC (DISTRICT OF ALBA)

SUMMARY

The article presents some observations occasioned by the restoration of the Hallstatt pottery from Teleac (district of Alba).

Besides the considerations regarding the connection between the strength of the pottery and its shapes and technics of manufacturing, the author describes two interesting cases of fissured vessels which were mended with coniferous resin during their utilisation.