

SOME CONSIDERATIONS ON THE ACTIVITY OF THE "REUNION OF ROMANIAN GREEK-CATOLIC WOMEN" OF BLAJ

SUMMARY

The paper deals with the activity of the "Reunion of Romanian Greek-Catholic Women" of Blaj aiming to bring its contribution to a better understanding of the struggle of the Romanian people in this area for the conquest of its national and cultural rights.

The first part of the paper refers to the steps taken so as to lay the foundations for this "Reunion", to its headquarters and its leaders, to its members and its funds.

The second part of the paper deals with the "Reunion's" relationship with state authorities, with the conservation of some ethnographical items peculiar to these parts and of the national costumes.

Further on there is reference to publications and periodicals the "Reunion" often contributes to, then to the steady endeavour to preserve the Romanian language and the Romanian folklore.

It concludes with a display of the "Reunion's" relationship to high national and cultural personalities, to other associations and reunions.
